“ May your family find peace and comfort at this most difficult time. Isaiah 25:8 says: "He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces. The reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth. For Jehovah himself has spoken it."

“ Bro. Keller was a hard fighting soldier who strived to keep the holy truth alive even in his discomfort. I admire him and thank God for sharing his warm spirit with us. Each of his loved ones are in our prayers.

I've never known a soldier that was as true to his God and his walk as a real Christian man as Bro Keller was. He truly walked the walk as a man of God. He was the most unassuming delicate soldier I've ever had the pleasure of knowing, he was always prepared and ready to serve in any capacity that he was ask to do. He will truly be missed. You've earned your rest. R.I.P.

“ Bro. Kellar (The Walking Bible) my nickname for him will be truly missed, I am going to miss sharpening your pencils Wednesday's after morning class, typing papers and making copies for the bible class you held in your apartment building, I'm going to miss you challenging me on bible questions, critiquing my bulletin quotes and you calling me t saying what you doing? I got some work for you to do, I know you not doing nothing anyways. When I came to visit you at the VA your still had all your spunk, and made sure I knew on every visit. Your Home is in Heaven you were just traveling through this world.

Prayers to the family may the comfort of God be with you all.

“ We went to visit bro.keller on his birthday. And he asked me why wasn't I at work? I smiled and said I did go to work, but I left early so I could come with the ladies of Church of Christ on Franklin Road and help celebrate your birthday with you. His reply was "You need to get back to work "we laughed so hard. He began to cry knowing that we truly loved him. We will miss him greatly. God will wipe away all tears. He was a great solider for the Lord. God bless
