ME

“ I met my big bro as a small scared kid in children's village. Lucky for me you were always the biggest and toughest in the room even then 😭😭

I learned so much from you. I learned to have confidence in myself not only as a boy but as a black man from you. We practiced basketball till our hands were calloused and bleeding.. we boxed every day...became respectable grown men and fathers. You were one of the best friends God ever blessed me with. My heart is broken bro. My condolences to your family. Rest in heaven Craig ¹⁰⁰

Sincerely your big little bro, Meech

“ I cannot believe you are not with us anymore. You taught me so much; we taught each other. I have known you half of my life. You and I have been through everything together. We have so many memories, and the most amazing Son that reminds me of you more and more everyday. This pain runs so deep Craig, you don't even know. I thank God for your life and blessing me to be apart of your journey for as long as I was. Thank you for the Love and also the lessons. As I enter a new chapter in life, I don't walk in it the same. Life is so fragile and special at the same time! Your strength and resilience was unmatched. You are gonna be missed and I promise that your legacy will live on. Watch over us and stay on Taehe has a new angel.

Love always and forever,

Kendra
