“ J Dub, whom many of us knew, and respected. But here I'll go even further to say this because of the years/days many moons and stars which sustained our lives. Our ties were long jeabordy, withstanding all sorts of obstacles. It was an honor and surely my pleasure to have known and shared a walk of this life here with He, Mr. Jimmy Willis. I beleive GOD is our FATHER and HE has prepared a place for us.

“ Thou time passed we never grew apart. I remember looking up into your eyes and you said “baby I’m a die heart” right then and there I knew I could trust you with my all. Through Incarceration’s and addictions you would of thought we would grow apart. Instead we came closer making plans for when you got out. You was released on my birthday which I’m glad to say, and talked to you before you went MIA. I can still hear your voice echo inside of me, your still very much present it’s hard to believe. I thank you for all the wisdom you poured into me. I thank you for never turning your back on me. Into we meet again, it’s hard to believe “ I lost my best friend “. chichi💔
