“ *So sorry to hear about James. Have not seen him in many years.
Was truly a nice person. I still miss Virgie too. Both were a credit to the human race. Too bad there are not more people like James and Virgie.*

“ *I just want to say how saddened we were to hear of your loss. Just remember when the Lord calls our loved ones home, he leaves a gift of memories in exchange. Hold on to your memories and let them guide you during this time of sadness. He is not alone....and neither are you. Look to each other for support. God gave us shoulder for a reason, lean on someone who also loved him. You are in my thoughts, prayers and my heart.
Love, Jerlene, Barry, Brian, Lindsey and Jerrica Riley*

“ We use to call him Little James, when we moved our family from The Blackland Community to town in Sunflower. Little James would come to our house all the time. He was the sweetest kid, very respectful and always well manned. He would also come and visit us when he came back to Booneville, MS for a visit. Our feeling are hurt and we are sad for your lost today. Word cannot and will never express the lost of a love ones. May the Grace of GOD be with you during your time of sorrow.

“ I just want the family to know that you are in my prayers and that I know that God will give you the strength and the grace to go thru this time of loss. Remember God said that He would never leave you nor forsake you. He is always there. His Grace is sufficient to take us through the rough times. Remember the story of the Footprints. When it get to the point that we feel that we cannot make or go any further, that when God steps in and he pick you up and he carry you in his arms until you are able to stand up on your feet again and go on in life. But remember he is always right there by your side. All you got to do is call his name.
