“ To: Linda, Chrissy, and Trinka and family. I am so sorry to hear about your father. He was so nice. I would sometimes see him working in the yard when he lived near me. He was so friendly. God bless you all. Take care and always look to God.

“ My friends respectfully called my Dad, "Mr. Days," happily whenever they saw him. He was the type of man that never met a stranger and always made a friend. I am so proud of my Dad. He was a God fearing man who brought scriptures into every conversation. He had a heart of gold.
