“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ It was a pleasure having James at the Church and in our home. As his Pastor and his son-in-law I will surely miss James. What a delight it was the many days of sitting and talking. It was plenty of times yet so short. I know you loved me and I couldn't ask for a better father-in-law than James. The family and Church family will miss you dearly. We thank God for allowing your life to shared with us.Pastor Michael Vickers

“ Words can not express how much I miss my Daddy, tears don't show how much I have cried for my father wishing there was something more I could have done. I admit I am selfish, I took care of my father for 8 years, and I would rather have him here in pain with me taking care of him, then dead and gone. I wont say goodbye, I will say see you later,Love your baby girl Melissa Vickers.

“ Dear Simpson Family and Friends,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one, and offer you my sincere condolences. Many have found comfort and hope in knowing that the Bible assures us: “Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit.” (Psalm 34:18) God’s holy spirit, or active force, can equip you with “power beyond what is normal” to go from one day to the next. (2 Corinthians 4:7) It is my sincere hope that this gives you a measure of solace in this most difficult time. My family wishes you and yours peace.
