

James Junior Wilson

November 30, 1959 - February 9, 2026

WILSON, Mr. James Junior - age 66, passed away peacefully at his home on Monday, February 9, 2026.

James possessed a voice like an angel and truly loved to sing, but he was equally at home with the grease-stained hands of a mechanic. He had the rare ability to fix your car and sing your troubles away all in the same afternoon.

Beyond his talents, James was a world-class listener. He believed that most things in life, whether a rough engine or a heavy heart, could be restored with patience and time.

James's greatest legacy, however, was his heart. He leaves to cherish his memory his wife and high school sweetheart, Rosemary Wilson. James didn't believe in "step" or "half"; to him, family was built solely on love and shared time. This philosophy was never more evident than in the love and deep bond he shared with Duron Shannon and Ravae Boyd.

He is also survived by his siblings: Marietta Wilson, Nathan Wilson and Linda Simon. His memory will be held dear by his special friends, Darrell James, D'Coby Johnson and JerMayar Lightner, along with a host of other relatives and friends.

James was preceded in death by his father, James Simon; his mother, Johnnie Mae Wilson; and his sister, Delois Whitelaw.
