“ This quiet soul was one of my students at Pontiac Academy for Excellence as a child. Because I've known her mother, Jackie, for many years, I took special care to look after her while there. I saw her about a month or so ago and I was proud to know she was doing well. What a sweet spirit this young lady had! The violence amongst our people must be aggressively addressed. We must learn to resolve conflict peacefully.

“ Jamila was an Oakland University Project Upward Bound alumnus. A high-achieving student, "Jamie" always expressed a pleasant personality, an overcoming attitude, a beautiful smile, and a gentle spirit. It was a pleasure to serve her, and we were all distressed to learn of this tragic loss. Our hearts go out to the family.
