Ms. Janet Carol Mansfield was born April 4, 1947 to Wandalene Hall and Omar Ellis. She departed this life on Wednesday July 20, 2016 at St. Joseph Mercy Oakland Hospital in Pontiac, Michigan. She was affectionately known as "Blondie" Janet accepted Jesus Christ as her savior and Lord at early age. She was a member of Straight Gate International Church in Detroit, Michigan, where she served in the Guest Service Ministry faithfully, Janet would always ask if there was anything else She could do at the church. Janet graduated Pontiac Central High School in 1965 and continued her education in her later years at Oakland Community College. She worked at General Motors Corporation for over thirty years and retired in 1991. Janet has always had a love for sewing, crocheting, baking cakes, pies and barbequing was her best. Janet was an avid reader of Better Home and Garden Magazines. She would get great ideas on how to decorate her home and yard. She took pride in planting flower gardens. Janet had a great love for butterflies. She truly loved her family.

Ms. Mansfield leaves to mourn and cherish her memory: three children, Rochelle Latice Prentis, Dorian Scott (Rhonda) Prentis, Stacia Lynn Harrison; twelve grandchildren, Darrelle Blair, Micah Adams, Aiyana Blair, Whitney Clark, Ryan Watson, Dorian Hankins, Jalen Harrison, Donte Batiste, Donovan Hammond, Shaniya Evans, Desmond Hammond and Laila Hammond; five great grandchildren, Journi (born on her birthday), Kaiden, Lyric, Damari and Parker; mother, Wanadalene E. Hall; very special friend, Ms. Ann Howard; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Ms. Mansfield was preceded in death by her siblings, Helen Marie Walker and Lawrence Edward Curington; step-father, Walter Eugene Evans Sr.
