“ I will always remember Jay. I was engaged to his roommate in college, Sumer Howard, and so I pretty much lived with him for a year. We was always great for a story or would lend a hand when needed. He is a good man and will be missed. His body may be gone, but his soul and memory will live on.

Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid...for the Lord thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

“ To Jason Moore family,

Sorry for your loss, may god bless your family. I had the pleasure of knowing Jason over the last year, and I will always remember him by his smiles every time I saw him.

Love Karen

“ It was our priviledge to live on the same street as Jason. He walked past our house to school from the time he was five. His radiant smile accompanied him where ever he was. The role of man of the house was thrust upon him at such an unfair time and now his passing leaves this enormous void in your hearts. Please know that we hold you all close and will do our best to be the good neighbors you deserve and during your grief, be available and loving.
