Mr. John "Lil John" McKnight-Lewis was born December 1, 1975 in Pontiac, Michigan, the son of John McKnight, Sr and the late Carolyn Lewis. At the age of 2, Delphine, his grandmother, became his guardian and raised him as her own son and he respected and treated her as his mother. At an early age, John accepted Christ and was baptized by Rev. Clifford Chatmon at Christ Church House of Prayer in Pontiac, MI, where he was a faithful member of the choir and youth ministry. He also attended Pontiac Schools from kindergarten through high school. John was a very friendly person with a great sense of humor and generous heart. He loved listening to music, sitting on the porch, taking small walks, making people laugh and cuddling with his "Hunh." Alongside those things, he was very playful with his "mom" and very overprotective of her. For example: If she coughed, he would immediately say "Moma you okay, Moma, Moma, you okay". John also enjoyed spending quality time with his Dad, especially when Moma was out of town. He really enjoyed spending time with his family, making them laugh, and giving his famous bear hugs. His favorite saying was "Be careful and may God be with you." Mr. McKnight-Lewis leaves to cherish his memory: grandmother, Delphine Allums; father, John McKnight, Sr; sisters, Johnitta and Jessica McKnight, Lucretia Lewis, Pamela Mathis; brothers, John, Ahkiem and Johnathan McKnight, Mario Shelton and Charles Lewis; and a host of other relatives and friends including, special cousin Elizabeth Lewis. Mr. McKnight-Lewis was preceded in death by his mother, Carolyn Lewis.

“ It seems like a dream that becomes reality whenever I go over granny house.... Although I was there and rubbed your head... Although I was there as you laid still... It still seem like a dream... I know that the Lord doesn't make mistakes but I am going to miss you dearly... Nobody can quite laugh like you... Nobody can say "Lala, can you get me a pop please"... "i don't know Lala, you gotta ask mamma".... I can still hear your voice.... It still feel like a dream... Although many of us will be saying goodbye tomorrow, you will forever be in the hearts of those who loved you... I love you... May you indeed rest in peace.
