“ I struggle for the correct words to support you in the right way. Please accept my condolences despite my lack of eloquent expression. I knew Johnny from work and he was a person that didn't conform to society, he did his own thing and didn't care what people thought, never knew him to back down on a debate and definitely long windy. He was a free spirit, I will miss him dearly. "It's not the length of life, but the depth of life," I really feel Johnny added life to his years. May he Rest In Peace. CC Campbell
