Jordan-husband, father, grandfather, son, brother, uncle & friend. Jordan passed away peacefully at home on July 1, 2022, after a lengthy, hard-hitting battle with diabetes. He enjoyed 70 years of life on this earth.

Jordan was born to Jordan and Ella Mae Harris in Montgomery, AL on June 16, 1952. He was the 4th oldest of 6 children. Their family relocated to Pontiac, MI when Jordan, affectionately called "Jr" by family, was just 3 years old. Jordan was a product of the Pontiac School District, earning his diploma from Pontiac Central High School. He was known for being the "big brother" during his teenage years, just ask his sisters. After high school, Jordan held positions with the City of Pontiac, General Motors, and the Pontiac School District where he served the most time. He made lifelong friends who loved him for his straightforward approach and witty sense of humor.

He shared a compassionate legacy with “his boo”, Sara, reaching 49 years of marriage. Their romance would last 53 years with unconditional love, tears, and friendship. Their family grew with the arrival of their two sons, Anthony “Tony”, “Big Tone” and Jordan III “JJ” and only daughter, Shonita, his “Fat Baby”. He lived vicariously through his children by teaching them how to cook, BBQ, and enjoy life. Being a granddad was something that he was extremely proud of. Spending time with his grandchildren brought him so much joy and happiness.

Jordan was a family-oriented man who loved to see those around him having a good time. In his healthier days, it was not unusual for him to host a get-together to use his cooking skills, he was often asked to make his delicious ribs, red beans & rice & other dishes. Cooking for his family & friends brought him great pleasure & made it possible for him to express his love through feeding them. Jordan loved music-his favorites were blues, R & B, and jazz. Like most music lovers, he couldn't help himself but to sing or dance.

Jordan leaves to cherish his memories, his devoted and loving wife, Sara; and their caring daughter, Shonita (Jeffrey) Jackson of Pontiac, MI; grandchildren, Jalan Harris, Chastidy Harris, Jordan Harris, Javonn Carter, Justice Harris, Kamauri Hamlin and Justin Harris; loving mother, Ella Mae Harris of Rochester, MI; compassionate sisters, Connie (Hershal) Owens of Pontiac, MI, Sandra “Nan” (Willie) Bell of Pontiac, MI, Vanessa (John) Allen of Auburn Hills, MI; daughter-in-law, Dana Harris of Pontiac, MI; sister-in-law, Clara “Jean” (Larry) Bell of Pontiac, MI; brothers-in-law, Dennis Richardson and Darnell Stroman of Pontiac, MI; and a host of affectionate nieces and nephews including special cousin, Harold Harris; and special friends, Sherman Gill and Alvin Wright.

Jordan was preceded in death by his sons, Anthony Harris, and Jordan C.

Harris III; father, Jordan C. Harris, Sr.; brother, Alphonse Harris; sister, Roslyn "Roz" Harris; aunt, Dorothy Lewis; father and mother-In-Law, Claiborn and Rosie Richardson.

The Harris family would like to express special thanks to nurses Brad and Bobbie, DaVita Dialysis, Dr. Jay Sandberg and Staff Oakland Medical.
