“ Joseph you was my first friend my first cousin and my only brother your heart is broken I never thought that I was never on this earth without you but God had other plans. We learn to walk at the same time we learn to talk at the same time we were inseparable in school everyone thought that we were brother and sister and we let. Somehow in school are your very close friends nicknamed you PEPSI and I always wondered why, I thought maybe it was because you were always so cool. Give the family a big hug and kiss for me and tell my mom I miss her. A big piece of my heart is with you until I see you again I love you brother.
