At Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home, we value the safety and health of our customers, staff and the general public. Therefore, we will adhere to EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 2020-11 issued by our Governor Gretchen Whitmer, regarding assemblages in the wake of the unprecedented health challenge our state and nation is facing. The Executive Order is as follows: Acting under the Michigan Constitution of 1963 and Michigan law, I order the following: 1. Beginning on April 10, 2020 at 9:00 am, and Continuing Until Further Notice. All assemblages of more than 10 people in a single indoor shared space and all events of more than 10 people are prohibited in this state. A single indoor shared space includes but is not limited to a room, hall, cafeteria, auditorium, theater, or gallery. The prohibition on assemblages set forth in this section does not apply to: We do understand that this may pose a challenge to you and your family, but our dedicated staff is here to help guide you towards making the best decisions in memorializing your loved one.

“ Mommy today marks year #2 and it still feels unbelievable I have not heard your voice, saw your smile or prayed with you. I keep hearing you say Nissa you're going to be alright no one lives forever. Mommy I'm still waiting to be alright, and wishing we had forever. Yes my life has gone on but it's just not the same without you. I MISS you daily and will LOVE you FOREVER 💕💕

“ Mommy today marks one year of you not being here with me in the physical and it still feels like it just left. I have made it through my year of firsts today marked my final first, the first full year without you. Oh how I miss hearing your voice, our daily conversations, prayers, dinners, laughter, smiles and so much more.... My heart will never be the same but my love for you will always remain.
Forever a Momma's Girl

“ Weary is not a word, it is a condition. It means tired , worn, beaten, exhausted. It means enough, I give up, by choice. So understand. It is a decision that the heavenly father made after he heard my cry, my agony.

*I heard your cry, seen your agony and felt your moans
Suffer no more my child, I'm bringing you home.
It is time, the hour has come when you must leave your weary body, to a joyous song.
I know you leave behind a trail of sympathy
But rest assured, again them you will see.*

*It will be a time of celebration
When the tired and weariness of yesterday will be gone.
I promise, and my promise I keep
Your love ones one day by and by, again you'll see.
You ask me, to make them understand
I, your God give them my assurance.*

*Children, be at peace, she is with Me
Her smile and laughter is restored, no more agony.
Children, miss her, I know your tears is a must
I realize your sadness, tears at this time is just signs of precious love.
I would not have taken her away if it was not the time
She was crying out to me, “take me oh Lord, ease my troubled mind.*

*Remember when Jesus died
He left with all who believe, his spirit inside.
In your heart from time to time, you will feel
The warmth of your mother's love letting you know, within you she still lives.*

*Understand my children, at last she is at peace
Yet she still live within you; so smile at the many beautiful*
