“ Condolences to the Moore family, Julian's wife Odessa; his step children and step grandchildren he loved you all very much, and talked about you all even when he was sick. There's no greater love than knowing that you had a family that loved you til you last day. The funeral was beautiful, seeing all Julian's friends come and express the love they had for him was priceless. Hearing the stories of how he touched their lives and them expressing it shows what they REALLY thought of him that's TRUE love, not just talking about it but showing it by coming to his home going service and expressing it. RIP brother you will NEVER be forgotten..💜💜💜
