“ It's been about 7 year's since we have seen one another. You hold a special place in my heart because you literally changed my life! You showed me the truth about racism, opened the door and become my biggest fan! Youd give the shirt off your back if it was the last one you owned if you knew someone needed it more! You looked out for me an probably saved me from alot of heart ache. You where my first raw friend and the one man who showed me truth! I will forever remeber that my heart breaks for your children and family, I pray peace an comfort from God over them all
