With sympathy during these sad times when words of comfort don't seem to be enough, may you find comfort in the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation and who is always near. (2 corinthians chapter 1 verse 3 and4)*

“ What Hope for Dead Loved Ones?

*Well, the Bible makes the promise: "Your dead ones will live... They will rise up." And the Bible also says: The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it.
(Isaiah 26:19; Psalm 37:29)*

To have real confidence in such promise, we need to answer some basic questions: Why do people die? Where are the dead? And how can we be sure they can live again?

The Bible makes it clear that God did not originally intend for humans to die. He created the first human pair Adam and Eve, placed them in an earthly Paradise called Eden, and instructed them to have children and extend their Paradise home earth wide. They would die only if they disobeyed his instructions. (Genesis 1:28 2:15-17)

“ I hired Kenneth at Michigan Bell many years ago. He was the most vibrant young man. I will always remember his smile and sense of humor. He was liked by everyone he worked with and was always a pleasant person to be around. I will miss him and will pray for the family's loss. God Bless
