“ I juss wanted to say that Kutta was a cool person and he didn't deserve to die...I remember him when we was young, we used to go to school together he had always said "when i get older imma be a rapper" and thats what he did and he was real good at it and its a shame that he had to go like that i still cant even believe its true it don't seem real at all but it is and god bless his family..
