“ My sincerest condolences to Kevin's wife and children as well as his extended family and friends. I learned of Kevin's passing when his birthday showed up in my feed and I thought, "I should reach out to this brother and wish him a Happy Birthday." ,,to find out he had gone home. My heart sank. I immediately began to pray for his family. My name is Shawn Lee and I served with Kevin on the Oakland County Employment Diversity Council, I'm also the photographer who took the photo of him in the lavender and yellow vest.

I knew Kevin as a man who loved his family and was dedicated to their success. I will continue to pray for God's peace and direction for you in this time and pray that the children make healthy transitions as they mourn this loss over time. God Bless you all and my heart is with you at this time.

“ I met Kevin 20 years ago, both as transplants to Detroit, and loved him immediately...then again, that experience was probably not unique to me. I imagine most that met him felt the same way; like you met someone who was going to be part of your life forever. Kevin was one of the kindest most genuine men I knew, with a self-effacing sense of humor and infectious laugh that made time together fly by. I always admired the way the he pursued his work in a way that set his family first and followed his passions, which were many. I will miss our long conversations over good meals, I will miss not being able to get your advice on business ideas, I will miss laughing with you...Life always seemed to get in the way of seeing each other more often, and we always left each other saying that we would see each other more often, as we did last October. I regret not seeing you more. Rest in peace my friend.
