“ Dear McCowen Family,

During this time of difficulty, may you find comfort by considering the finest basis of encouragement, God's Word the Bible. May you find comfort by considering Psalms 146:5,9 where God shows loving concern for bereaved ones. Additionally, 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 truly shows that Jehovah is "the God of comfort" who comforts us in all our tribulations. Our prayers go out to your family.

“ Please accept expression of sympathy over the lost of your dear loved one. I am writing to share with you the marvelous hope that the Bible holds out for a future resurrection.

God whose name is Jehovah and his son Jesus Christ, are concerned over your loss. Their promise is that our loved ones can live again. (john 5:28,29). What comfort and strength we can draw from the knowledge of the resurrection hope! And how glad we can be that those in Jehovah's memory will awaken from the sleep of death.

“ To the McCowen family,
With sympathy during these sad times when words of comfort don't seem to be enough, may you find comfort in the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation and who is always near. (2 corinthians chapter 1 verse 3 and 4)
