If I would've known that you wouldn't be here anymore I would've made the moments last a little longer cause now I'm alone 😞

Dearest Kyndra,

Words seem to fail me as I try to express the sorrow I feel. We often say "out of sight, out of mind," holding onto the hope that we'll see a loved one again someday. But this time, that comfort eludes us. My heart aches for you and your family; I can only imagine the depth of your pain.

Please know that I love you and your family deeply. Your dad, you, and your brother have always shown me such love and kindness, and I cherish those memories.

Sending you strength, love, and heartfelt condolences during this difficult time.

With love,

Tae and Linda Wallace

“OMG! July 3, 2023. I am devastated with a broken heart. Disbelief that this beautiful soul has passed away. I remember when she was a young teenager when I would visit your Dad I'd always ask about you. I hate that I didn't get a chance to meet you as a young woman I always told your dad you were special, you and I share the same middle name same spelling. Rest in peace. Family of Kyndra this is Nicole from Rochester Hills. Anna and I worked at village shoe Inn together. If possible contact me 734 659-6738

“Kyndra, I will miss you & how ridiculously hyper & goofy you were. You laughed easily & often- you made up words that didn't make sense, but that's what made you so much fun. You had a generous heart, just like your dad, and were always willing to help others if you could.

I love you so much, baby girl. I will miss you forever!

“ I’ve known Kendra for only about 2 plus years now. Her company meant so much to me. It was therapeutic because I saw qualities in her that is rare to find in todays world. Earth just lost a gem. It breaks my heart so much that I’m having to write this here. You were a star which you didn’t get enough chance to let shine so bright. I wrote you a day after I read your last text to me, that was early this month on the 6th. I didn’t get a reply, I kept poking you and making jokes. I thought it was just you being busy. when I never got a reply back, it was unusual, no post from you. I wrote your friend Ellene and that was when the news broke to me. It was surreal because I knew how very careful you were. I wish I did more to stay by you at all times as our phone calls weren’t enough just maybe I won’t have to be saying all this. I wish it were just a prank. Kendra, can’t believe you left me back here, can’t believe you are gone.. thought we were building onto something great for people. You loved life for what it was, you kept it real and promised to take me to your cousins someday. I will always have you in a very special place in my heart, carry you in my spirit and never to forget you. I promise. 💔😭🕊️ now that you are gone, don’t know how I can carry on without you but promise to stay strong and keep the marathon and let everyone know what a special person you truly were here on earth. My best friend. My heart goes out to your family, your mom, siblings and Phoenix. Some day, I will let her know how much her mom loved her. ‘PHOENIX!!! wash your hands before you eat !!💔😭🕊️

“ I remember her visit to Poland. Kyndra and her father Roman. Early they were in Italy and there called her Bambino. She was so angry. And when we were sitting in my mother's house, Roman said: where is my Bambino? You should see her face! We spoke last year, she said she would like to visit Poland again...but life writes us different scenarios. Śpieszmy się kochać ludzi, tak szybko odchodzą...“Let us hurry to love people they depart so quickly”. Kyndra, you are always in our minds and our hearts. Sending our condolences to her daughter, family and friends.

“ I attended High School With Kyndra. We didnt hang really then she was in a grade under me, however I would always joke with her about her dad, he was one cool, laid back type of guy and would dress to the T every time he would pick her up from school. Through the years we started to talk on Instagram. When she became a mom that brought the best out in her. We talked about a lot and one thing I do remember is she was happy to be a mom she loved Phoenix. That was the best part in her life. I am sending love to her sweet baby girl and to her family. Rest well Kyndra ❤️🙏🕊️

Such a beautiful and kind young woman gone too soon. I grieve with the family and the Carmichael family who she was very close to, especially the best friend of my granddaughter, Blake.
