“ Dear Carter Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is fresh even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress.
(Psalms83:18,Psalms65:2) Please be assured , death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again.(Isaiah 25:8) My family and I wish you and yours peace.(Phillipians4:7)

“ To Javion and Family,

May God give you strength with each passing day. We are praying for you and your family that you may find peace in this very difficult time of your life. Your mom has raised a determined and smart young woman. Your mom was preparing you for life as she supported you through High School graduation at West Bloomfield High School and then went on to ensure that you graduated from Eastern Michigan University. I am sure that she was proud of your accomplishments. Keep the values that she instilled in you, but most of all stay close to God and lean and depend upon Him for your strength and to give you your directions in life. Although it may not seem like it now, God will let you smile again and He will renew your joy! Please know that your friend Krystalynn and I are only a phone call away.

“ I am truly going to miss my cousin LaShawn. She was so kind hearted, selfless and loving. People like her come once in a lifetime and I'm so glad and so blessed to have had the pleasure of having her be apart of my family and life. She was the kind of person that would give you whatever you asks for. I asks for God to give our family and friends the strength and courage to deal with such a tragic loss. We love you Shawn and will truly truly truly miss your warm smile and laughter and energy.

“ I met Shawn through my cousin, Nate, many years ago. She was always pleasant. When I was not old enough to take my nieces to the movies when I was 16, I went to her and asked her if she would buy the tickets for us all and she did. To LaShawn's Family and loved one's may God wrap his arms around you all at this difficult time.

“ I am certain that Shawn will be missed by many, I remmber her from years ago. She had children for my consin. She was the go to person for my boys. She was always postive and happy. She is gone from this land, but not from the many hearts she has touched. My prayers are for the family and friends that are left behind. May the peace of God substain you in this hour of saddness.
