“ Tan- you will truly be missed. I knew you were my sister/friend. Every time we saw each other, we never missed a beat. Always laughing and reminiscing all of our many laughs, thoughts, and encouragement. Your words and smile always brightened my day. Years of love, strength, and support you always shared...I am always grateful. You were always a ray of sunshine and seemed like nothing ever bothered you. I love you and will miss you. Rest now. ”

“ Show me Your ways, O Lord; Teach me your paths. Ps 25:4.

Tan had a big heart and always had inspiring words for me. I will truly miss her beautiful smile and the cards she would send "just because". She was a dear friend and spiritual sister. God needed an angel, so He called her home.

I will keep the family in my thoughts and prayers. May you find strength in her memories and in each tear you shed, until you meet again. Stay strong.

*God bless,
Sis. Cynthia Rush*
