“ I love and miss you so much I wish you were here your departure has shown how ugly those closest to you can be I wish I could go back in time instead of letting people play on my emotions if you could talk to me I know you wouldn't be happy with me putting him as your husband in your obituary I'm sorry you left me prematurely and we never discussed the what if I should have known better due to actions I wish you could trade places with allot of people I wish we had more time together I wish you could talk to your daughter I wish you could ease her pain I wish she could rest with you I know you don't know anything about these worldly things and I believe it's best I'm hanging on and maintaining the best I can if I have ever let you down I'm sorry I know you wouldn't want things the way they are between me and your daughter I promise the love I know you have for get canceled out a lot of what I wanted done to her she tried to ruin my life on multiple occasions I know we weren't raised this way and I try so hard not to be the Ree you knew me to be to your daughter she hurt me to the point of no return I wish you could come home I wish you were on vacation but I can't be selfish I know this is the best rest you've ever received I bet your no longer in pain I'm not certain to what happens when one leaves I hope they are treating you better than how you were treated here

“ Girl what am I going to do without you. Who do I have to talk to now? just know I will do everything within my power to take care of your children, helping them to continue to grow up to be the wonderful ladies you were raising them to be, while enabling Darnell to find his potential. I won't let you down. I will always take care of them the way I took care of you. I remember the last note you wrote me saying you're 48 now and no longer need me to take care of you, but little do you know that's what I was suppose to do. I love you and I will see you again.

“ o my beloved sister Trish. It's so hard saying goodbye. As I sit here and try to figure out what I want to say, I start crying. You meant the world to me when I was down I could call you and you would lift me up and make me laugh, you taught me to be strong, you also taught me how to be a lady and always look fabulous, no matter what I was going through. I will take what you taught me and use it for the rest of my life. I know you don't want me to cry so I will try not to, but I can't help it. I miss you too much even though, we didn't talk everyday when we did we would be on the phone for hours. I want you to know that I Love you and every time I go over your house it will always say "I'm going to Trisha's. so I'm not going to say goodbye, because this is not a goodbye. What I will say is til we meet again.
