Lavern, my school mate, my friend, when I say friend, a word you do not use loosely. Although we did not see each other for periods of time, whenever we saw each other it was just like old times. Elementary School, Middle School, High School. She was always the same "Happy Lavern" "Rest In Heaven, My Friend"

*Death is nothing at all, I have only slipped away into the next room. I am I and you are you , whatever we were to each other that we still are. Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference in your tone, wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the jokes we always enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me, let my name be forever the household word, let it be spoken without effort. Life means all that it meant. It is the same as it was, why should I be out of mind because Im out of sight I am waiting for you for an interval somewhere very near just around the corner all is well. Nothing is pass nothing is lost, one brief moment and all will be as it was before . How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting when we meet again, Rest Peacefully Bun

To your Mom Mrs. Powell & Powell Family,

Words cannot explain the loss of a loved one. Those we love don't go away, They walk beside us every day, Unseen, Unheard, but always near, Still loved, still missed and very dear. "Death leave a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no once can steal. RIP Bun until we meet again, Love you.
