“ *To the Stewart family,
With sympathy during these sad times when words of comfort don't seem to be enough, may you find comfort in the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation and who is always near. (2 corinthians chapter 1 verse 3 and 4)*

“ *It sadden my heart to hear the news about our dear brother. I had the opportunity to meet Leo this smmer he had such a sweet and pleasant spirit.
I say to the family, we sre sadden but the Good Lord has recieved his Angel.
Rest in Peace my Brother.
"Weeping may endureth for a night but Joy cometh in the morning."
No more troubles of this ole world.*

Love, Ms. Willa

“ I was truly blessed to have met Leo a couple of years ago. He had such an upbeat and positive personality. He was so proud of himself when he got his degree in the culinary arts and rightfully so. He told me I should go back to school, that it was never too late and to believe in myself that I could do anything. I will miss him. This really hurts. God bless you all. You are in my prayers.

“ Leo you will truly be missed by your work family. You always brought a smile with you and took pride in taking care of the patients! We will be thinking of you always but especially during football season. Keep an eye on your Lions and help guide them to that championship you always believed they would win! We miss you!

“ It deeply saddens me to hear of the loss of such a wonderful man. His smile was infectious. I met Leo 10 years ago, when we started in the cafeteria together, he was such a hard worker and sincerely enjoyed his job. He was always willing to lend a hand to others, just a genuinely good hearted person. Since then, I've moved to another area of the hospital, but I would still see him coming in the front doors of the hospital, with that same smile and strut. Exchanging our "hello's, and how ya doin"...Leo, you will never be forgotten. May you rest in peace.

“ What a terrible loss, I considered Leo a friend of mine and will miss him. I have great memories of working together, sharing rides to and from work at the hospital and getting to know him on a personal level.

Thoughts and prayers to the Stewart family during this time of mourning.
