“ Dear Lewis Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.

“ Bro, Raymond, Douglas, Rodney, Bridgette and the rest of the family, I am praying for you and all of your family that God will comfort you at this place in your lives. The photo of your mom is beautiful and I see in her smile and her eyes what I believe every child hopes to feel when a parent or any loved one moves on. That a good life was lived, full of love, joy and happiness. Lillie's age reveals that she lived a long life and her glow and smile says that she lived a good and happy life. I hope all of you have enough wonderful memories to last the rest of your lives and give you peace until you meet her in the heavens. I hope and pray that each of you know Christ and have a personal relationship with him. He is an awesome God and He is the only one who can and will comfort and keep you and give you unexplainable PEACE. Love to you all.
