“ Dear McCowen Family and Friends,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one, and offer you my sincere condolences. Many have found comfort and hope in knowing that the Bible assures us: “Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit.” (Psalm 34:18) God’s holy spirit, or active force, can equip you with “power beyond what is normal” to go from one day to the next. (2 Corinthians 4:7) It is my sincere hope that this gives you a measure of solace in this most difficult time. My family wishes you and yours peace.

“ Dear Brother Darrell and Sister Phyllis:

Just a note of comfort and love to express my deepest sympathy in the passing of your mother last week. Please know that I am praying for your strength during this time as our Father God is many things to us but especially our Keeper and the God of all comfort (2 Cor. 1:3,4).

God bless you and your family richly with His everlasting love and amazing grace!

Much love,

Sister Kay Warren
