“ Uncle Neekie I'm so saddened at your loss paran. I'm gonna miss all the phone calls from you always asking about the boys. Thank you for everything you've done for me. Just being my uncle and godfather was enough. I'll try and start drinking black coffee like you always did. I will never forget you and always love you. Get your rest you've fought a good life and let your wings forever protect the boys. I love you forever til we meet again, Debra

“ I drove to Louisiana back in 1992 with Lou and his Dad for the opening of the casino in Marksville. We had great food, and met some great people. 10 years later, I married my wife who grew up just south of Marksville. Small world!
