“ Enos, Theresa and family I want to share with you how much I loved my friend. Lynette and I shared so many beautiful times together throughout our life. The travels we did were amazing. Camping and hiking brought joy to both of us. I was always amazed by Lynettes love of the simple beauties around her. She was just asking me if I had seen any new birds at my home and how sad she was because of her health issues her flower garden was suffering. Her heart was so large with love for her family and friends. She was so happy for me in my new life being married. We would laugh about me finding her a man like my husband. She truly had joy in her heart for others. Lynette was an amazing woman and friend and I will never forget her. I was truly blessed to have her in my life. I now Lynette is planting that beautiful garden in the Lords Kingdom. God Bless you all

“ My deepest condolences to Lynette's family. She loved you all so very much and would talk for days about her enjoyable visits with her parents, dinners at her sister's house and garage sales with Aunt Marilyn in Birmingham. Lynette had a contagious sense of humor and could keep a group of us in a car laughing at her stories or entertain a roomful of people with her humor. She also amazed me that she was so multi-talented. Lynette sewed beautifully -- anything from curtains, drapes, etc. She also refinished and reupholstered furniture, and had a flare for remodeling houses which she did with her own. Lynette had a great love for the beauty in this world. She loved planting flowers and watching them grow. I will miss the many photos she sent me of her colorful flowers, fireworks or anything else she felt beautiful and worth sharing. She and I also had a common love -- for cake. Every few times a year I would buy us a one layer white or yellow batter frosting cake with whipped frosting, bring it over to her house and we would both devour the entire cake. But mostly I will miss our hours-long midnight and early morning phone calls. We had the most enjoyable chats. One of Lynette's favorite pictures was of Jesus with the retrieved lamb flung over his shoulder. I know Jesus has Lynette around his shoulders now with a peaceful expression that now he brought her home too. Rest in peace dear friend.

“ I have spent so much of the last two days remembering the many good times Lynnette and I had together. Most of the best ones involve going camping or eating out someplace fun. We we tent camping together in southern Indiana about 12 years ago and both sat straight up in bed during the night when a bolt of lightning struck very close. It was pouring rain, but we ran for the car for safety. We sat in the car to dry off for a long time after the storm passed, listening to beautiful music and drinking flavored coffee we had made earlier. It was so peaceful. I learned so much from Lynnette- how to tie special knots on the tent ropes, what the call of the pileated wood-pecker sounded like, how to catch the scent of ozone in the air, etc. She was an expert at finding the sore spot on my neck that was causing my headache and knew just where to press to relieve the pain. Many times today I have heard about a news item or nature story and have thought 'I need to text Lynnette about that'. It will be a long time before I quit feeling like she is there in Pontiac, ready and happy to talk to her Aunt Marilyn.

“ I meant this Beautiful Lady Lynnette when she was a new hire at General Motors in Kalamazoo. Right away I found her to be a sweet, kind and truly beautiful person inside and out. Lynnette was a very hard worker and I do not know one person that didn't enjoy working with her. Lynnette's smile made you want to get to know her better. Lynnette and I spent many days talking and getting to know one another and becoming friends. I am very saddened by her passing yet know that she is welcomed by our Lord with open arms. I am very sorry for your Families great loss and my prayers are with you. My husband Tom who also knew Lynnette would like me to convey his deepest sympathy to you all as well.
Rest in peace Lynette, there is now a special Angel in Heaven, you have touched our hearts and now it is time for you to join our Heavenly Father.

“ Enos and Foss Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Lynnette was a wonderful woman that I was honored to have known. She was pretty, friendly, and a very hard worker. She made a lot of friends while working at General Motors. I always heard people say such good things about her and Cindy. They worked together well and were a bright spot in our lives. I know of no one who didn't smile when they encountered those two ladies.
Rest in peace, Lynnette. You will be missed. -Sharon Epley
