“ My sincere condolences go out to all of Lynn's family and friends. I am so very sorrow to hear that Lynn won't be with us on this side of glory. I only got a chance to see her once since my return home, and I was hoping to see her again. I was especially hoping to hear her sing again! You're a part of the heavenly chorus now, Lynn.

“ Allen: I, and my family, am truly sadden about the passing of Lynn. The loss of a loved one is never easy, and time often does not cure or ease the pain. However, just know that you and your family have not forgotten during your hour of bereavement. May you find peace and comfort at what can only be considered a very difficult moment. Cuz, James, Joyce, Peggy, Betty

“ My brother Brian and I are truly sorry to learn of Lynn's passing. Her late parents, Mr. and Mrs. Looney were dear friends of my late grandparents and of course Lynn, Charles and the entire family were lifelong friends. Lynn was such a beautiful, loving and special lady. The last time I saw Lynn was at our late mother's viewing back in 2024. Sending our sincerest condolences, love and prayers to Mr. Campbell and the entire Looney/Campbell/Mathes Families. I will always remember her beautiful smile and loving personality. Lynn may be gone, but never will she be forgotten. Rest in Heaven, Beautiful Lady.

Lynn and I met in 1st grade. I loved Lynn like a sister. I'm so grateful God allowed us to talk in length a few weeks ago. I loved how she answered the phone when I called! Hey girl, what u doing? And when she called me it was the same! Right now I don't have to ask, I know what my girl is doing. She's with God our Father and reunited with Mr and Mrs Looney, Charles, Tommy....My comfort is in knowing I'll see u again. Lord knows I'll miss our loooong chats and zill never ever forget her laugh! ❤️Azya, Raymond, Allen, Butch and all her nieces, grands, she loved y'all with all of her!!!!❤️❤️
