“ To the Kennedy Family:

There are not enough words in the English language that can express the depth of sadness, shock and extremely terrible loss that is in my heart. I still can't wrap my mind around knowing that my wonderful, beautiful sister/friend Mae Rose has been called home to be with the Lord. My eyes have cried many tears since Kelly and Jean called to tell me she was gone. I am going to miss all of our wonderful conversations that we have had for decades. Thank God I have so many wonderful and fond memories of my visits on holidays with Mae Rose who was one of the best cooks that ever walked the face of this earth. She had so much love, compassion and concern in her heart for me, my mother and my entire family. We always talked and she always wanted to know how Mama was doing after Mama became ill and was no longer able to make telephone calls. Mae Rose was the matriarch of the Kennedy Family right there along with Mother Kennedy leading, guiding and offering her advice and wisdom to her family, whom she truly loved. We shared so many laughs and tears over the years and talked about anything and everything. Mae Rose, along with Kelly, Jean and Sonny, always made me feel like I was part of the Kennedy Family from the very beginning when I first formally met them and spent time with the family in the early 1980's.

Debbie, Kitty, Kelly, Jean and Sonny, Sheila and the entire Kennedy Family; you all have my family's sincerest condolences and are in our prayers. May God give you the strength you need during your hour of bereavement. There was so much love in Mae Rose's heart for so many people and she was definitely loved by our family. Please know that Mae Rose may be gone, but never, ever will she be forgotten. Rest easy, my beautiful Mae Rose. I thank God for blessing my me and my family with you. We will hold on to all of the beautiful memories of you that will last us a lifetime. We love you, Mae Rose.

“ Words cannot begin to express the feeling of sadness, disbelief, and loss that I feel at this time. My deepest sympathy to the family in the loss of your loved one. After the passing of my parents, she was kind, caring, and a loving Christian lady who always kept in touch with me. I will cherish my fond conversations and memories of her. To the family, may you be comforted and find peace knowing she is resting in arms of our God whom she loved. My heart goes out to the Crawford-Kennedy family and know that she will be truly missed. Blessings
