“ Death is our greatest enemy. We have all felt its sting for its not partial. Because we are born into sin, as long as we keep living, the eventuality is death. Jesus said death has no hold on me. His Father and our Creator, Jehovah promises to help us. Isaiah 25:8 says, "He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD (JEHOVAH) will wipe away tears from off all faces;.....for the LORD hath spoken it."

What a wonderful prospect, that we, in the future will be able to enjoy endless life without death. While we await this faithful event let us draw closer to Almighty God, Jehovah, who gives us the strength to endure difficult times as these.

“ I didn't know Marina that well, and haven't seen her for many years, but I have vivid memories of summers with her out at the ball fields behind Avondale Middle School. We played Little League softball together in middle school. She was fierce with the bat and was always an outstanding player. I remember her wailing those balls to the outfield. She was a determined competitor and I was glad for the years when she was on my team and not the opponent's. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ *My most humorous was the swipe of her big bros ride to come see me before she knew how to drive, that was the scariest yet most fun filled ride I ever had. I got so many memories of my first relationship of any length and meaning. And who can forget her famous saying "eerrr"
Love you Ms.*

Marina I just met you through your truest home girl Towanna over the summer of 2014 at Towanna's sisters birthday party. I had never met anyone that just made herself so at home and looked so confident about herself, you had a smile, a happy smile that made all of us love you, I felt like I had known you all of my life. I got one other chance to see you at my nephew's party that my sister Rachel had invited Towanna and you to in August 2014, and once again you came in smiling, talking to everyone you met, and after singing happy birthday with everyone, you cut his cake and gave everyone a piece of it and you had never met any of them before, Everybody just loved you at his party as well. We enjoyed you so much. Wow what a beautiful, awesome person to meet and love in such a short time. I am so happy God made it possible to have met you and shared so many laughs and talks with you. Our heavy hearts go out to your family. RIP
