“"Auntie Marlon," I miss you so much. To loose you was so unexpected. I felt like I lost Granny all over again. I am so sad that you had to go so soon, and I wish you were still here. I can still hear your laughter, and your voice saying "That's my Shayna Pie." I never knew how much I would miss that name, even though I felt like I out grew it. Lol! I love you so much and I am so grateful I had the opportunity to tell you. You will always be in my heart and in my prayers.

“ Mothers are faithful companions and confidants even in the most difficult times. Mothers dedicate their lives to caring and providing for their children both physically and emotionally. They always seem to know how to help them to overcome problems and thrive in spite of them. A mother's love is irreplaceable, which makes losing her to death an incredibly painful experience. While sons and daughters of all ages carry within their hearts a dull and lasting ache where they once felt love and security, it is important they continue searching for the happiness their mother always desired for them. She loved her family

“ My friend Marlon, oh how you quietly tiptoed into our world, and it seems only a moment you stayed. But the imprint your footprints left on our heart and soul will forever be remembered. For when the heart grieves over what is lost, the spirit rejoices over the memories that's left behind. There are no adequate words to the family in moments like this, I would just like to say though, my heart goes out to you all, and I will always remember the joyous memories that I was privileged to have shared with my friend. R.I.P. My Friend.
