“ I was so blessed to have a Mother who was straight to the point and direct. A woman of few words. Her word was her bond. Her actions were unapologetic. She encouraged us to be ourselves! She did things her way! My favorite saying of hers is, I pity the mouse who only has one hole to climb out of. We lived a real life with a Village of Mothers who all left us with real ammunition to take on the Real World. Thanking all my friends who loved my Mother and showed her what unconditional friendship meant. Love Forever Mom, may your smile warm others in remembrance.

“ As a young lad, I always had a very pleasant time being in the midst of Ms. Mary Carr. It was certainly a blessing that she embraced me unconditionally as we laugh loudly with a smile even throughout my adulthood. Her eye contact, I will certainly miss and the moment of escorting her to her vehicle to go home from Phyllis Taylor recent birthday party; I will never forget. God bless the entire Carr Family Family.
