“ This Beautiful lady has been awarded with long life. Never a time I visited her that I didn't leave with home made rolls, cookies or one of her special preserves. Truly a special lady who walked in a spirit of love and had strength to finish her course. Well done to a good and faithful servant. My love to the family for sharing her with so many who loved her. “ For the past two years I have had the distinct pleasure of being my Mother in Law’s primary caregiver, although it wasn’t always easy (she was determined to not need help), it was always my goal to help the one who has always sacrificed her self, her time and her resources for those who need her - whenb

HisMrs Tonia - January 24, 2019 at 12:58 AM

Oops... when my Mom died 9 years ago and she saw me struggling - more like sobbing uncontrollably, she patted my shoulder and said ‘hard times come, this I know to be true.... but look to the hills which cometh your help - and know that this too shall pass. I’m your Mother too and I’m here! When she was sick and too ill to care for herself, she told me she wished she could remember me.... I told her it didn’t matter if she did or didn’t, I remembered her!!!!

“ Hi,

This is a huge long shot but so worth the try...

*Mary Eaton had a small clay dish in her dining room that was made by my daughter when she was very young. I would love to get this back for her. I do not have a phone number for Thomas or Pat. If you are able to, could you please forward this message to them in the hopes that they still have it? Even if it's already been thrown away, that information would also be appreciated. Attached is a Facebook post by my daughter that I'm sure they will enjoy seeing. Thank you so much for your help,

If something is on your heart to do, do it. Don't let your mind cloud what you have time for. A couple months ago Mrs. Eaton was on my heart a lot and I really felt like I should send her a picture of my boys. Things came up, I kept forgetting and now I don't have the that chance to bring a smile to her beautiful face. Mrs. Eaton was my grandma and grandpa's neighbor in Pontiac, and boy did she love when us kids came to visit. We always went home with cookies. That clay dish I made and painted for her sat in her dining room for years and she'd always say, "Remember when you made that for me baby?" She was an amazingly gracious, giving, and kind soul and she will be greatly missed.

Hello thank you so much for reaching out and sharing your daughter's post - please describe the dish for me, Momma never threw anything away! Tonia Eaton (Pat's wife)

Thank you so much for responding. The dish is probably only a few inches across. Jenna made it when she was young so it would look like a child made it. :).

Soo sorry to hear about Sis Mary, I truly loved her. She was a hero to me and my daughter. We helped her put up some curtains in her home one time, years ago. She made and set out a beautiful meal, a feast fit for royalty for us! A lady came by to drop off something, of course Sis Mary wouldn't let her go without her partaking in the feast! 🤗 She was the first Black Female entrepreneur that I new of! Kind, giving, soft spoken yet a tower of STRENGTH, Peace and Love! Not many Saints left like Sweet Sister Mary! Love you, Veola and Family! God Bless and Comfort you all In Jesus Christ Name!
