She attended Pontiac Schools and graduated from Pontiac Central High School "Class of 1990 (The biggest class ever)." Mary accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at the age of eight years old and was a member of the Deliverance Church of God In Christ, under the then Pastoral leadership of Administrative Assistant Supt. W.R. Ginyard. Mary later moved her membership to the New Mount Moriah International Church where her pastor is Bishop William H. Murphy Jr. and began serving with the "Helping Hands Ministry." Our "Momi," loved music, dancing, being clean, smelling good and looking nice. She was an avid reader and a beginning writer, May 9th she would've returned to OCC where her studies were for Mental Health Social Work. She had already earned forty-six credits and was eighteen credits away from an Associate's Degree. She loved Black and Orange ("Go Chiefs Class of '90)! Mary enjoyed cooking for her friends and family and everybody loved her food. Last but not least she loved her mama and her "two big babies" her children, Bethany and Joshua.
