Growing up with Mary and the Edwards Family at Liberty shaped my youth and established my foundation. Two years ago, Mary graciously and powerfully sang at my sister's funeral. I appreciated that, in my time of need, I just sent word and she came without hesitation. Now, the Father has called her home, and her voice is a lovely addition to the heavenly choir. On behalf of the entire Graham family, condolences to Mary's family and friends who will dearly miss her presence.
