My wedding day, May 16, 1992, when I married my husband, the late Martin Wilkerson at Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church, Pontiac, Michigan. This photo was taken at Roma's of Bloomfield in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. My wedding was officiated by the late Pastor Edward L. McCree, Sr. Mrs. Smith was a honored guest and my money bag keeper. This is one of my favorite photos of that day. Unfortunately, Martin, Pastor McCree, Cynthia Thomas Chambers and Mrs. Smith are no longer with us. They are in Heaven with our Lord and Savoir Jesus Christ. Rest in Heaven. Gone, but never ever forgotten.

“Words cannot even begin to express the deep sadness that my mother and I are feeling in learning of Mrs. Smith's passing. She and her husband, the late Peter Smith, were great friends of my late father, Robert Johnson, my mother Willie McCoy-Johnson and myself. Mrs. Smith was a beautiful, loving Christian woman who was very generous in so many ways. She was the trusted purse keeper for my wedding back in 1992. She watched over my money bag. We have so many wonderful memories of her and time spent with her through the years. My mother and I have beautiful jewelry gifts that she bestowed upon us many years ago that we still have in our possession and wear to this very day. She had a quiet strength about her that radiated throughout not to mention that she was always impeccably dressed and truly a woman of great class and sophistication. Our hearts are heavy and we are praying for the entire Smith Family on the loss of such a wonderful, dear and devoted friend. You all are in our prayers and have our sincerest heartfelt condolences. Mrs. Smith will never, ever be forgotten. We will always love you and we thank God for blessing us to be blessed with her.
