Mr. Melton S. Woods was born on October 30, 1947 in Ferriday, Louisiana to the late Paul and Helen Matthews-Woods. He moved to Pontiac, Michigan in the late 60's where he resided until his departure. Melton began working for General Motors Corporation shortly after moving to Pontiac, Michigan where he worked for twenty-one years and retired. In his leisure time Melton, enjoyed having gatherings for his friends, where he enjoyed barbequing for everyone. His hobbies included working on his rental homes, cooking and watching his Detroit Pistons play! Melton was a very hard working man who instilled those values into his children.

Mr. Woods leaves to cherish his memory: daughter, Jacquelin Laffitte of Atlanta, GA; two sons, Melton (Shawnte) Bell, Roland (Kawnisha) Whitehead both of Arlington, TX; nine grandchildren; brothers, Paul (Diane) Woods of Pontiac and James Woods of San Diego, CA and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Mr. Woods was preceded in death by his parents, Paul and Helen Matthews-Woods; brother, Billy Woods.
