“ Sending condolences to Melvin's family. Still can't believe he is in heaven watching over us! I will miss him so very much. The jokes, horoscopes, laughter and the many long talks about life! Rest easy my friend for I know you are in a better place with God!

Forever My Friend!

Smell Mel, my heart hurts and I am in shock. But my comfort comes from knowing you and Bang and all the posse are together again. Always kind and so sweet, what a loss for us who remain. I cherish my memories of our NLP days. God bless all who loved him. THE WHITE LADY. <3

“ The first brother i was ever in the trenches with! Had a great personality! And when it came to track and field he was faster then Carl Lewis back in the 80s. A great guy and friend! God bless his entire family

Bill lavallis - October 02, 2017 at 04:18 AM

I remember his track and field days! He ran with shades on. Funniest story ever, he ran anchor I believe it was 4x100 he gets baton he is behind, he turns on the jets catches the guy turns and looks and says you got walked! In mid stride and kept running. Rest easy!
