“ In this time of your loss, I lift you up in prayer. I pray that in your sorrow, you'll find that God is there. He understands your pain. He feels the grief you feel. Just give to Him your broken heart, for He in time will heal.

“ We pray that God give you the strength needed at this time. We know that you believe God and you know that he makes no mistakes. We love you and if there is anything we can do for you, please let us know. Although we won't be able to attend the funeral because we will be in Texas for granny's funeral, know that we will be praying for each of you.

“ To Mike's family we want you to know that you are not alone in your sorrow over this loss. Those of us in Texas who knew and loved him send you our deepest sympathy. Michael was my friend, colleague, and served as my children's principal. He will be missed. We pray that GOD will dispatch an angel from heaven to sit at your feet to comfort you in this time of sorrow to ease the pain in your hearts.

“ Our prayers are with you. Michael was a very dear friend to me, he gave me my job with the DISD. I will always cherish the memory of such a kind hearted person that gave so much and expected so little in return. His presence and his kindness will be truly missed.

“ On December 11, 2007, I sent Mr. P (as I affectionately called him) an email, just checking in with him, since we had not communicated for some time. I had no idea that he was in the hospital, so he never saw that email. Mr. P was one of the best principals I ever worked under; he always had our children's best interest at heart, and was very genuine in his efforts to rejuvenate our school. And, he was successful!

I loved and admired Mr. P for the genuine, caring person he was. The good news is I took the opportunity to tell him on several occasions how much I, as well as our school community at Amelia Earhart Learning Center in Dallas, appreciated him for what he was able to do to improve us all. In fact, it took us a long time to get over losing him as our principal. I'm happy to say we never lost him as our friend.

I pray for his soul, and feel confident that he is in the presence of the Lord. Now, I'll be asking him to pray for me.

I love you, Mr. P. Always, Miss. Arthur (as he affectionately called me).

“ It was definitely a pleasure having known Brother Palmer these past few years. The wisdom he poured into my life as a younger member of the fraternity is priceless. He has been an inspiration on so many levels. It is my prayer that Brother Palmer's family is strengthened by God during this time of bereavement.

“ To the family,

I can't even type much because my heart is so heavy. Thank you for sharing such a wonderful person. Mr. Palmer meant so much to me and he was surely a blessing for me and many others. I will never forget him and I will love him forever.
