“ We spent so much time together, weather we was shopping or just sitting and drinking coffee, laughing at the simple silly things in life, mostly your baby boy! Your love for all of us, still blesses us. Your grand daughter has grown to be a mirror image of you. Love and miss you momma very much.

“ Family, I will truly miss my dear friend Michelle. When we meet again in Pontiac, we were both amazed that both of us had gained weight, we laughed at each other. Michelle never changed her personality, and that is one valuable quality about her. She was always nice and kind to me, when others bullied me. I will truly miss her. Family and Mom please try to stay strong through this process. My Prayers will continue to be with you all.

“ Aaron, I was very sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. She was such a sweet, kind, and very caring person and I feel priviledged to have known her. While I wish we would have seen more of each other since we stopped working together...I will forever have very fond memories of her. Sincerely, Sherri Ellington

“ May God comfort you and keep you safe in His arms strengthening you day by day. Live your life as if she is still here because you carry her in your spirit God saw to that so, live it full and right so that she can bare a proud smile looking down on you, do this so that you will see her again. I know this message comes late but it comes with much prayer for you and your family. Love Sandy a close high school friend of Michelle
