“ *To the Crump-Reynolds Family:
I just learned a couple of hours ago of Mildred's passing and I was both shocked and saddened. Both she and Marge were on my mind very heavy last week in that I hadn't seen them in quite some time and wondered how they were doing. You all are in my prayers. Mildred was wonderful and beautiful woman whom I had known since the mid-70's meeting she and her sister as we worked through the summer job program. She was always so cheerful and full of life and such a great spirit. I will always remember her and that glowing smile. I have nothing but beautiful memories of her. Marge, you are in my prayers. Your twin may be gone, but she will never be forgotten and you will meet again on the other side. As long as you have the beautiful memories of her, she will live forever! Rest in peace, My Sister; for you are in Heaven with God.
Love You,*
