Family hour 10:30 AM Friday, June 19, 2015 at New Springfield Missionary Baptist Church, 124 Prospect Street with funeral service commencing at 11:00 AM. Pastor William Parker, Officiating. Interment Oak Hill Cemetery, 216 University Drive. Friends and pallbearers will assemble at the church 10:30 AM Friday. Mrs. Taylor will lie in state at the church and may be viewed from 10:30AM to the time of the service on Friday..

Mother Mildred Ruth Taylor was born on October 3, 1931 in Columbus, Tennessee to the union of John Brown and Zanna Brown-Walker. She moved to Michigan in 1944 and attended the Pontiac Schools. She was the mother of the late Billy Brown Sr. and later married Frank Taylor in 1976. Mildred was a former member of Hopewell Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Reverend Grandberry for many years. She later joined New Springfield Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Reverend Dr. Lenworth Miner Jr. Mildred was a member of the Mother's Board and enjoyed good singing from the choir.

Mother Taylor leaves to cherish her memory: three grandchildren, Billy "Papoose" (Alicia) Brown Jr., Tiffany Payne and Daniel Brown; one great grandson, Malik Brown; siblings, Ann (Joseph) Walls and Georgia Blake; special niece, Janice Stewart; special friends, Cesar McDonald, Maude Applewhite, Cletis Jones and Lois Lance; precious angels, Sharon and Melvin Devealt, and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Mother Taylor was preceded in death by her husband, Frank Taylor; son, Billy Brown Sr.; three sisters and four brothers.

The family would like to express special thanks to Pastor Willie Parker who was right by Mother Taylor's side so many times throughout her sickness.
