“ I do not know the family but I know God. I am praying for this little Angel family. What a beautiful thing this mother has selflessly done in the midst of a broken heart she allowed another child heart to mend and to give them a chance by offering her Angel's heart. I pray that the hurt and hate you feel towards yourself soon past away as you did something to truly honor your baby and gave purpose and her young life was not in vain. You then allowed another child to breathe by offering her lungs. It takes a strong woman to do this. Then her liver all such precious and delicate organs donated in the Name of love giving the gift of life. You truly have an Angel among you. I love you with the love of the Lord.
