“ Saying I will miss you doesn't scratch the surface, Momma you were one of a kind. I only wish I had known you foer many more years. I appreciated everything about you. Your love, care and concern for people was so sincere. You held my hands and prayed for me when my dad passed, you comforted me when I didnt understand what was happening with my son's waywardness, you taught by your actions how to be saved forreal. You loved me, my mother, my sister, my son and never was afraid to say "I am sorry" if you felt you needed to, even when you really had no reason to apologize. A real WOG is what you were Momma. I dont know what know what I'm going to do without your wisdom to navigate these tough times during this journey of life. I just appreciated having you in my life as my mother-in-love. God knew that your time here on earth was up, so now you are on to the better part, forever being with the Lord. To be absent from the body is to be present with the LORD. YEAH, THAT'S A BETTER PART FOR SURE. I will see you when I complete my work here, so until then rest in peace Mother, LoveYouMuch . Monica S Love

“ I’m going to miss granny but the lessons on life she gave me over the years won’t ever leave my heart. From singing to dating, Granny always told me to put a little God in it. I’m grateful to have seen her, kissed her, and showed her love the last time I saw her. I hope they have a big enough microphone for her in heaven 🙏

On behalf of the City of Atlanta Police Department, It is with much sadness that I extend prayers and our unwavering support to the family of the late Doris Duckett. Both Richard, and Almetra dedicated well over 30 years of Service to the City of Atlanta Police Department. We understand the loss of a mother is devastating. But please lean on us for the support and comfort you need. Also, always remember, no matter how difficult life gets " he knows just how much we can bare"!

May the love of the Lord continue to protect you and keep you lifted up during this difficult time. We pray that we have provided some measure of comfort to you and that you will continue to feel the love as we extend our loving arms around you.

Be encouraged and continue to lean on your faith that has provided comfort to you and your family. Remember weeping may endure for a night but unspeakable joy will follow in the morning.

We all love you and will all be with you in our hearts and spirit. Again on behalf of the Mayor of the City of Atlanta, Keisha Lance Bottoms, our dedicated Chief of Police, Rodney Bryant and all of the men and women serving we want you to know that you are deeply loved and respected. May God Bless you and keep you safe! Rest in Peace Mother Duckett!

Respectfully,

Sergeant Janice Y. Sturdivant, the City of Atlanta, and your entire Atlanta Police Department family
