“ To the family of aunt Georgia B. I am covering you in prayer as you go through this difficult time. It is times like this that the right words can be hard to find. Losing someone you love can feel like losing a part of you, the depth of the love that connected you is greater than anyone ever knew. What you are experiencing is normal and a process to heal, let your thoughts and feelings surface and allow what you feel. You will have moments that you don't know how you will make it through; so just remember that I will be praying for you. Lifting you in my prayers. Love Cousin Jackie East Saint Louis Illinois.

*“ My prayers are with you all. There is no one like mother. Thanks you for sharing her down through the years. Linda; I know your mother got great comfort in those hardy meals. And family even though nobody wanted to see her go; there should be great joy in knowing that you did well by MOTHER WARREN. God Bless.

“ We were truly saddened to learn about the passing of Mother Georgia Warren. Mother Warren was truly a remarkable Christian woman whom my mother and I truly admired. I always looked forward to seeing her at church and talking with her. Our Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church Family has lost a beautiful and loving member of our family. Both she and her late husband, Brother Vasco, were always a joy to talk to. Mother Warren will truly be missed.

To Shurle, Evelyn, Overdis and the entire Warren Family: Please know that you have our sincerest condolences and you all are in our prayers. May God bless and keep each and every one of you in His care and know that we love you and ask that God strengthen you all during your hour of bereavement. Rest in Heaven, Mother Warren.

“ Mrs. Warren was a friend to our family for many years. She and my mom, Mrs. Annie Bruce Walker, were "besties". Mrs. Warren had such a warm smile. I always enjoyed talking and laughing with her. I will miss that. Also, everybody at Macedonia asked her to fix some dressing for our potlucks. LOL. Take your rest. You've earned it.
