“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ Glenda, Veola and Family;

We extend our most heartfelt condolences in your hour of bereavement. This is not an easy journey, but one we all must travel. Because your mother was in the Lord, we know that she has just changed her address. We will miss her small frame that cheered mightily for the Lord. We all lived on Howland Street, back in the day, and she will be sorely missed, but the Comforter will see you thru.

“ *Dear Hillie Family and Friends,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. May it comfort you to know that The Most High God has resurrected humans before and He assures us He will do it again. (Acts24:15). God longs to bring back those who have fallen asleep in death to perfect health under paradisaic conditions right here on Earth. (Job14:14,15)*
